How Do You Like It?

This is the exact picture of the lady before she bought the Gold Watch for her daughter.

And this is the way she looked after she had purchased and compared the price and quality with the one her "nabor" bought the same day of L. P. Hensen. She is thinking now of the old adage, "A fool and his money are soon parted."

In the repair line L. P. Hensen has the pole and has never been headed at any stage of the race.

Every body knows it.

sion ticket to Chicago and back.

Wednesday, Oct. 18.

On the staunch new passenger steamer "City of Holland." Tickets good returning for ten days.

October is always a month of pleasant, quiet weather. A trip across the lake is delightful now.

Now or Never. The World's Fair will positively close on the last day of October. To see a thing it when transportation is so cheap will be something you will never give yourself for. Take the boys and girls when you go. The fair is a great educator.

The steamer "City of Holland" now makes Tri-Weekly Trips to Chicago for Chicago and back, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 7 p. m. Leaving Chicago, 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. for Holland every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 8:00 p. m.

Regular fare $2.00; Round trip $3.00. Berths included.

W. B. GRIFFIN, Manager, Holland, Mich.

Found!

A grand place to buy groceries. Tell your neighbors that WILL BOTSFORD & Co. is the place.

Nurse.

Mrs. Bruce Watson, Cedar Springs, says: "Whenever I am real tired and nervous I take about seven drops of Wheeler's Heart and Nerve Cure and I always obtain instant relief."

A sudden collapse at Holland, from a fall. For further particulars inquire at WILL BOTSFORD & Co., who have dropped prices on groceries way down.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

MURDERED at Holland—High prices, at WILL BOTSFORD & Co.

Time is getting short for those who have been putting off going to Chicago to see the greatest exposition of all time. It will close Oct. 30th, and if you haven't been yet, get ready to go now. Don't wait until next week. You cannot afford to miss it. It's as great an educator as a trip around the world, and the expense is insignificant compared to such a trip. You won't have another such chance in your life-time to see such a wonderful show, and even if you have to scrimp along for a while and go without something else—don't miss seeing the "White City" and its multitude of exhibits for all the world.

As an additional incentive to get you started, the C. & W. M. By will sell tickets on Oct. 13, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25 and 27 at one way fare for the round trip.

These tickets are good ten days including date of sale, and are sold via all-rail routes as well as via St. Joseph and steamer.

Rate from Holland is $4.70 all rail and $290 via St. Joe.

Our Agents will be glad to give you full information about trains and anything else which you may want to know (so far as they can).

The crowds are going now; lots of people just waking up to the fact that they will be way behind the times if they miss seeing the World's Fair. Don't wait until the last week and then get caught in the final rush, but go now.

Venir McClintock, who play the part of Bertie Lawrence in the drama "On Southern Soil," is considered a very fine actress. Her acting is said to be true to life, and so natural that one almost forgets she is playing a part.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Nice wether during the week.

Improve your time by reading Streng & Son's add this week.

Fall pasturing is good, notwithstanding the severe summer drought.

On our second and seventh pages will be found the list of premiums awarded at the late fair.

L. Koole, the First ward tinner, had his peddling wagon burglarized Friday night, and part of its contents stolen.

Dr. F. J. Schouten has requested us to state he has resumed his practise and can be found at his store or residence, same as heretofore.

Among the recent arrivals from the Netherlands is Nicholas Leys, brother-in-law of J. Schoon of this city. He also was a passenger on the belated ocean steamer Veendam.

The silvermen have met the evening and—won. That is, the first effort to force the passage in the senate of the House bill unconditionally repealing the Sherman law is a failure.

Don't miss seeing the great military and comedy drama, "On Southern Soil," next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, at the Opera House. It will be the best entertainment ever given here.

Travel on the C. & W. M. was decidedly brisk on Monday, and on the days preceding. Nearly every train that went south left in sections, several of them being made up at Waverly to accommodate passengers from the north. All on account of Chicago day.

List of letters advertised for the week ending Oct. 12th, 1893, at the Holland postoffice. Mr. Chas. Bartel, Mr. J. G. Bennehoff, Mr. L. P. Conkey, Miss Mettie Coom, Mr. Hazenfeld, Capt. Chas. J. Rickley, Mrs. Eleanor Ferry, Harry Van Dyke, Mr. S. Wiersum. G. J. VAN DUREN, P. M.

Chris Kameraad, aged 13 years, son of B. Kameraad, Holland town, had the middle finger of his left hand cut by a saw at the stove factory, Tuesday. The injury was so serious that the finger had to be amputated below the second joint. Dr. H. Kremers attended the operation.

It is with no small degree of satisfaction that we refer to the financial statements of the two banks of this city, published in this week's issue of the NEWS. Despite the embarrassments growing out of the financial stringency these institutions have been fairly successful in keeping the industrial wheels in the city in motion, and eminently successful in sustaining the public confidence and maintaining their own solidity.

The Holland City Christian Endeavor Union will hold a meeting in the First Ref. church of this city on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, at 7:30. The program given below is designed to be instructive, inspiring and entertaining. Every one is cordially invited to be present, whether a member of a society or not, whether interested in Christian work in Holland or not.

Stated. Remarks by the president of the Union. Responses of delegates from other societies. Singing. History of Holland's Revival—Rev. H. E. Donker. Discussion of the topic—led by Rev. J. Van Houten. Singing. Our Fall and Winter Campaign—Rev. H. G. Birchby. Dis. usior. Singing. Social half-hour. Devotion. Benediction.

Our readers should not forget that on this Friday and Saturday evening Prof. D. M. Bristol and his remarkable horses will begin a two nights' engagement at the Opera House. Matinee on Saturday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock. One of the features of the matinee will be a free pony ride for the children. The following is from the Pittsburgh Dispatch: "The horses belonging to Prof. D. M. Bristol's company are a great deal brighter than many of the human actors that an unkind fate permits to torture the public. Last year's horse show at this house, which was given by Mr. Bartholomew's animals, was clever enough, but it is an unquestionable fact that Prof. Bristol's horses perform a programme containing more varied and interesting features. Comparatively speaking Prof. Bristol's horses are variety horses whereas most equine performers belong to the legitimate drama. The trick mule Denver's antics are most laughable, and the tricks performed by the other horses are many of them new and all amusing. The horse Sultan is the chief star of the troupe, but there are several wonderfully intelligent animals besides him."

Wheat 58 cents.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Duplidge, on the Lake Shore, Monday—a daughter.

Died, on Thursday, the six-months old child of Mr. L. Vele. The mother preceded it in death about that many months.

L. P. Huseen has received the dials for the new clock to be placed in the bank tower. The clock itself is expected every day.

Religious services are being held every evening in the big tent, corner River and Seventh streets, by M. J. Badden, evangelist.

Fourteen cases of looking glass plate from the Netherlands for the West Michigan Furniture company were received at the Grand Rapids customs house Tuesday.

The Y. M. C. A. gospel meeting Sunday afternoon will be led by principal F. W. Hadlock. The attendance last Sunday was 110 and in the reading room, during the week, 245.

Do not go into Streng & Son's a few days after their dress goods sale is over and say you knew nothing about the special bargains they had to offer, but read their add. It will not be time wasted.

The board of directors of the Pleasant Valley Creamery and Cheese Co., at East Saugatuck have organized by electing D. Linters president, J. Lubbers secretary and manager, and J. Heeringa treasurer.

At the rate business at the Holland post office has increased of late, it will take less than two years and we will have free delivery. The total of annual receipts required in order to be designated as such, is $10,000.

In behalf of the Band of Workers and members of the M. E. church a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend a reception to be given Monday evening next to the new pastor, Rev. J. Jacques, at the M. E. parsonage.

The 22nd annual convention of the Michigan Young Men's Christian Association is being held at Battle Creek, and will continue in session until Sunday evening. Delegates are present from 31 city and college associations.

The "Ladies Of The Maccabees" will give a Peanut social and supper Saturday evening, the 14th inst., at K. O. T. M. hall, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Prizes will be given, and everybody is invited. Tickets, 25 c. per couple, and 15 c. each.

The McClintocks and the Sons of Veterans have secured an excellent cast for their play "On Southern Soil" and everybody will act his part exceptionally well. The McClintocks are very fine instructors in bringing the local players up in their respective parts.

Mrs. John Stroop, nee Sarah Becker, died at Waverly, Tuesday evening, of puerperal fever. She leaves a husband and one child, a babe of eight days, besides parents and several brothers and sisters. Mr. Stroop had the sad experience of losing his first wife under like circumstances.

The board of education have engaged Miss Minnie Bell of Gibson, Allegan county, and Miss Jennie DeVries of this city, as teachers in the Public Schools. They will enter upon their duties and rooms will be assigned them upon the completion of the new First ward school, which will be at the opening of the next term.

We congratulate station agent Holcomb upon his narrow escape from what might have been a serious mishap. In returning from Waverly to this city on the second section of the fast train south Tuesday afternoon he jumped off the train at the depot, while passing through the city at a rate of 30 miles an hour. Mr. Holcomb struck on his head, which stunned him, and skinned his face somewhat, on the clinders. He was conveyed to Dr. Kremers' drug store, in a senseless condition. To-day however Mr. Holcomb is under again, able to attend to his duties.

The survey now being made along the line of the C. & W. M., of which we made mention the other day, is with the object of entering upon the maps and plats of the company the exact location of its road, indicating where they cross section and quarter lines, and run through platted villages and cities; also locating every building within 200 feet of the right of way. Mile posts are being erected and oak stakes every 500 feet with the number of the station stamped on. This work was ordered last spring and commenced at the southern terminus of the road, Laporte, Ind. It may take four years before it is completed.

Kalamazoo's city indebtedness is $107,000.

Messrs. Slag & Smith fitted the law office of Geo. E. Kollen out with a neat book case, this week.

The highway leading to Van Dyk's mill, on the north side of Black river, is being re-graveled and improved.

Streng & Son are having an elegant glove trade in consequence of their fitting gloves to the purchaser's hand.

J. Flieman has laid a new sidewalk in front of his extensive wagon shop on River street. Let the good work go on!

Lokker & Rutgers have moved in their new doublestore, "The Columbia Block." Look out for their new advertisement next week.

Owing to the repairs to our steam boiler the News is indebted for this week's press work to the publisher of the Ottawa County Times.

A large number of passengers were listed on the register of the stmr. Saugatuck, Sunday evening, to observe Chicago day at the World's Fair.

Will Botsford & Co., grocers, and Nelson Pitton, dry goods, have taken a new lease for a year of their respective premises, in the City Hotel block.

The last shipment of stone for the new court house at Grand Haven from the Waverly quarries was forwarded last week. The walls of the building are up.

Ground was broken for the grading of Sixth street on Monday morning, at the intersection of River street. Contractor De Vries has a large force of men at work.

The old Herald store building is being moved from the Vaupell lot on Eighth street to Fourteenth street, where J. W. Bosman will convert it into a dwelling.

"Patrimonium," a Holland christian workmen's society in this city, has rented one of the rooms in McBride's block. They hold their regular meetings semi-monthly.

The stmr. Saugatuck has been taken off the Holland-Chicago line. The stmr. City of Holland will continue to make tri-weekly trips until the close of navigation. See adv.

The 21st Mich. Infy. held its reunion at Ionia Thursday evening. Among the speakers was Lieut. C. Van Loo of Zeeland, who responded to the toast of "The Old Silk Flag."

The ladies of Grace Episc. church Sunday school and choir will give a musical social in the church, this (Friday) evening. A good program has been arranged. Admission ten cents.

One more opportunity is offered to take in the Worlds fair at a nominal expense. The Holland line offers return trip tickets for ONE DOLLAR. See notice of special excursion in another column.

Will Brusse has just returned from Chicago with a fine assortment of gents' furnishing and underwear, the latest of the season. Don't fail to drop in; they will be glad to show you the goods. See adv.

In regard to the new college library it has been virtually decided to continue with the finishing of the building, and complete the plastering this winter. The crowded condition of the class rooms, by reason of the increased attendance, forces this in spite of the stringency in money matters.

Died at the residence of I. H. Lamoreux, in this city, on Saturday, Oct. 9, 1893, Ebenezer Lamoreux. He was born in Monroe, Orange Co., N. Y., Feb. 10, 1823, and came to Michigan with his parents in 1841, settling on sec. 34 in Fillmore township. After reaching his majority he married Miss Harriet Thornton, and settled in Manlius. By integrity and strict attention to business he amassed a handsome fortune. Though not a member of any church he gave liberally to all churches, and cases of destitution and public enterprises. His remains were taken from this city to New Richmond, where the funeral was held Monday.

Over fifty vehicles loaded with relatives and sympathizing friends followed his remains to their last resting place in the Manlius cemetery. He leaves one brother, I. H. Lamoreux of this city (whom he came to visit just one week before his death, never to see his home again) one sister, Mrs. Sarah M. Stowe of Manlius, a wife, one son Edward, and two daughters, to mourn his demise.

Thus passes away one more of the pioneers who followed the Indian trail when this country was nearly an unbroken wilderness. L.

Common Council.

HOLLAND, Mich., Oct. 10, 1893.
The common council met pursuant to adjournment and in the absence of the mayor and the president pro tem ad. Haberman was appointed to preside.

Present: Alds. Lohrer, De Spelder, Den Uy, Dalman, Haberman, Harrington and the clerk. Reading of minutes and regular order of business was suspended.

Supervisor John Kerckhoff requested that the supervisor of the first district be furnished with a copy of Geiger's Tax Calculator, similar to the one belonging to the supervisor of the second district. Request granted.

John De Haas and four others, citizens of the city of Holland, requested that the council take the necessary steps to state or remove what they consider a public nuisance—the slaughter house near Market street, in the fifth ward, the same being very offensive, particularly so when the wind blows from the south, and that they consider the same unhealthy. Referred to the Board of Health.

The committee on streets and bridges, to whom was referred the matter of construction of sidewalk on the north side of Tenth street, west of Maple street, reported recommending that the construction of the sidewalk be ordered, and completed by the first day of April, 1894.

By Ald. Spelder.
Resolved, that the report of the committee be accepted, and that the sidewalk be constructed on or before the first day of April, A. D. 1894, the same to be constructed in the manner provided for in section one of an ordinance relative to sidewalks, and

Resolved further, that the city marshal be and is hereby instructed to give notice to the owners or occupants of the lots or premises adjoining the proposed sidewalk, at least thirty days before the said first day of April—Adopted.

The clerk reported that no objections had been filed in the city clerk's office to special assessment roll for the improvement of East Eleventh street special street assessment district and that notice of same had been given two weeks in the Holland City News, according to law.

The report was accepted and the assessment roll laid upon the table.

The clerk reported that no objection had been filed in the city clerk's office to the assessment, profile and estimate for the grading, paving and otherwise improving of Eleventh street, between the centre of Maple street and the west line of Hope College addition.

Mr. A. Stephens, owner of property on said street, being present, verbally requested of the council that the grade, according to profile advertised be lowered six inches in front of his residence—referred to the committee on streets and bridges and the city surveyor, with instructions to report on same at the next regular meeting of the council.

Adjourned.

Geo. H. Sipp, City Clerk.

Mortgage Sale.

DEBTOR HAVING BEEN MADE IN THE conditions of payment of a certain mortgage, made and executed by Keesa Zuidewind, of the City of Holland, County of Ottawa and State of Michigan, to Dirk Klein, of the township of Holland, County of Ottawa and State of Michigan, dated the thirteenth day of May, A. ## A Sad but Instructive Picture.

The eminent Mark Lane Express, of London, the best informed paper in England regarding agricultural interests, makes a comparison. It says: "The disaster to British agriculture is more widespread in its ruin and heart-rending effects than would be the loss of, at least twenty ships like the Victoria, and yet it goes on without a word of sympathy from Parliament or the slightest attempt to throw out a legislative life-buoy. Let those who doubt our assertion just consider a few facts. The deficiency from an active crop of hay in England alone in the two years 1891-92 was no less than £15,000,000 sterling, while if our crop this year is two-thirds less than an average one, the loss at $4 per ton, on which the above is computed will be over £20,000,000. If we divide this by two we have nearly £10,000,000, or enough to purchase eighteen such vessels as the one whose loss the whole nation is deploring, and this gigantic loss is from one crop alone. This year all our crops are falling in more or less, and the total loss of income to the agriculturists of this country, from all these sources, cannot be far short of £22 per acre; and as there are over 24,000,000 acres under cultivation in England—where the disaster of the year is more felt—it follows that the losses from this source alone cannot be far short of £53,000,000, the value of fifty fully-equipped iron-clads."

A Happy Family.

The exceptional motherly affection of Letta, an Angora Maltese cat, for three little white bull terrier pups, orphaned soon after their birth, is the most noticeable feature of a "happy family" possessed by Gilbert H. Prindle. The purring foster-mother, although she has two pretty kittens of her own, takes quite as tender care of these terrier puppies (which are white, like the kittens), and of four fox terrier puppies also, as she does of her own little felines. She nurses, feeds and washes the puppies and kittens impartially; and the partner of her joys, a big Maltese cat, known as Grover, seems to regard the adoption of the seven canines with approval.—Philadelphia Record.

Nature's Hint.

Nature gives a hint, as to all mammals, that a different kind of food is needed for their very young than older animals require. Milk contains the elements of bone and muscle in admirable proportions for making rapid growth. But after the young animal has been weaned it should so far as possible be fed on the kind of nutriment to continue its growth, and of all the grains wheat, oats, and peas contain these elements in best proportions.

A Great Thing.

It is a great thing for a man to get out a little and come in contact with other people and see how they live. R. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., are giving many young men a chance to do this, and at the same time to put money in bank rapidly. Try them and see.

CHICAGO TAKES HER TURN AT THE FAIR.

Never has the World's Fair grounds presented such an appearance as they did on Chicago day. Vast crowds surged before the gates long before 6 o'clock in the morning. Every line of conveyance to the Fair was crowded to excess, every platform on the Illinois Central and on the elevated road, every street crossing downtown was black with people anxious to get to the Exposition. The Illinois Central trains were packed, and poured people into the Fair by thousands. There never was such a crush. By noon there were fully 400,000 people in the grounds and they still poured in in huge streams through nearly seventy entrances. These made their way in great black columns, interspersed with color, to the court of honor, where the gilded goddess of liberty shone doubly bright in the sun's rays. The mammoth plazas east and west of the Administration Building were soon living masses of humanity, which cheered and laughed and shouted when the cannon of Battery D began to thunder forth, from

The plaza east of Administration building, facing the Court of Honor, was black with spectators. The "Reunion of States" was the grand spectacle which they had assembled to witness. As the States passed in review around the Court of Honor, represented by 3,000 school children from all parts of the city, cheer after cheer at tested the interest and gratification of the vast audience.

The review was divided into five sections. The first was led by a chorus of 100 boys from the Diocesan choir, followed by thirty-four youths, one selected from each ward in the city, bearing a shield with the word "Welcome" inscribed upon it, representing the great metropolis of Illinois. Then came thirteen young ladies representing the thirteen original States, each bearing the shield of the particular points north, south, east and west of the Fair, its salute to the nations. This salute, at stated intervals, occupied the whole forenoon.

A silence fell on the multitude when the "heralds of peace," attired in their gaudy costumes, began their fanfare of peace. These were stationed on the peristyle administration building, manufactures building, agricultural building, all turned toward the Goddess of Liberty, and played on their brazen instruments the motto, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Towards Men."

When they ceased a prolonged cheer evidenced the enthusiasm of the multitude.

When on the platform on the west plaza 2,000 voices sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" the multitude, carried away by their feelings, took up the refrain, and a dull roar of harmony mounted to the heavens. It was beyond all description magnificent and grand. Following the great burst of song the united bands of the Exposition joined in playing "Dixie Land," "Mary and My Mary," and similar melodies awakened responsive chords in the hearts of the people. The chorus, orchestra, and band joined in "Columbia."

If the morning festivities were grand those in the afternoon far outdid them.

At night the most gorgeous pageant ever produced took place at the Fair, followed by the most wonderful display of fireworks it is possible to imagine. Twenty-five great floats illustrated the arts, sciences, peace, war, Chicago, and the nations. It was like nothing. It had no dimensions to describe it, no heights to measure it, no tops to circle it; it was simply incomprehensible. It was greater than Paris, greater than London, greater than Vienna, greater than all the tales of numberless hordes of marauding barbarians; greater than all the legends of ancient phalanxes, squadrons and cohorts; greater than all the romances of pious pilgrimages, invasions and expeditions; greater than all the stories of embattled retinues of sacking princes; greater than the dim yarns of the wild rovers of pillaging armies. Seven hundred and thirteen thousand six hundred and forty-six was the exact number of paid admissions. Half a million saws at a holiday in a town yet an infant, in a town without history, in a town but a score of years out from the blackest, cruelest scourge that misfortune ever dealt.

It was a glorious day—glorious as to the weather, glorious as to the occasion, glorious in its program, glorious in the mighty result which attracts the attention of thinking mankind the world over. It was a day of great days. It was Chicago Day.

Dark Side of the Day. Four killed and nearly a score injured. This is the record that Chicago day made at the Fair. The explosion of a mortar during the fireworks display blew out the life of John Dryden, cable trains crushed Charles A. Clark and Thos. Robinson to death, while James Malcolm fell from the steps of the intramural railway, breaking his neck.

SAFE FROM THIEVES.

A Costly Ring Lost to Its Fate in Spain's Capital.

A costly ring, unguarded by police or other special protection, hangs suspended to a silken cord round the neck of a statue of the Maid of Almadena, the patron saint of Madrid, in one of the much frequented parks of the Spanish capital, says the Philadelphia Record. It is set with valuable diamonds and pearls, but, notwithstanding, there is not the least danger of its being stolen; the greatest thief in Spain would sooner steal the plate from his own mother's coffin than to even so much as to touch the uncanny relic.

Its history is curious and interesting, being equal to anything related in medieval folklore. It was made in accordance with a special order from the late Alfonso XII., who gave it to his cousin, the beautiful Mercedes, on the day of their betrothal. She wore it constantly during her short married life. Upon her death the King presented it to his grandmother, Queen Christina. She died soon after accepting it and the King then passed the deadly little jeweled band of gold to his mother, Infanta de Pilar, who died within a month after.

Again the accursed circle started on its deadly rounds, next finding a place upon the finger of Christina, daughter of the Duke de Montpensier. In less than one hundred days she, too, was dead.

Alfonso then put the cursed jewel in his own casket of precious relics, and lived less than a year after so doing. Is it any wonder that such a harbinger of death can safely hang on a statue in an undisturbed square?

Of No Consequence.

Lady Holland was a social autocrat who had no hesitation in ordering about the most dignified and celebrated men, when they happened to be guests at her house. It was not often that one had the courage to withstand her, but if a man gathered the hardihood to do it, he became forthwith her chosen favorite.

Another such ruthless hostess was one connected with a story of Monsieur Renan, though, unhappily, we are not told whether she profited by the lesson taught her that evening.

At a dinner-party before Renan had risen to fame, he was about to speak on a current topic, when Jules Simon signified his intention of talking, and the hostess asked Renan to wait.

When the greater lion had done roaring, the lady said: "Now, Monsieur Renan, it is your turn. You were going to say something."

"I merely want to ask for some peas," he replied, with gravity, and he was silent during the rest of the evening.—Youth's Companion.

Safety from a Periodic Scourge.

Do you want to be insured, dwell in a malarious region, against the periodical scourge which threatens to seize you in the form of chills and fever or some of the forms of miasma-born disease? It goes without saying that you do. Then, instead of using quinine or other alkaloid and mineral drugs, which merely relieve and are always detrimental to general health, seek aid where it is always forthcoming—from the thorough preventive and remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, in regions where malaria is far more "violent and prevalent than it is on this continent, eradicates it completely from the system. Biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney and nervous complaints, neuralgia, and rheumatism are among the maladies to which the national tonic and corrective is adapted. Physicians everywhere know its genuine worth.

Collecting Coins.

Coin collectors have long appreciated the difficulty of making a complete collection of American specimens. The United States coinage of 1793 is very rare, and a dollar of the year 1794 has often sold for as much as $100. A 1796 half-cent is so rare as to sell readily for $15, and a half-dollar of the same year is worth 60 times its original value. While the half-cent of 1804 is common enough, all the other coins of that year are rare, the dollar of that particular date being the rarest of all American coins. Only eight are known to exist out of the 19,570 that were coined. The lowest price that one of these now changes hands for is $800. These prices are encouraging to collectors.

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla at our house, and with good reason. For eight years I was troubled with rheumatism and all remedies failed to help me except Hood's Sarsaparilla. Like many others I have not taken it steadily; only when the pains came on, but it has always given me relief. For many years past I was troubled with quinsy. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I have not had a single attack. As any of my family are taken sick they resort to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I might write several

How Woodford Voted.

Stewart L. Woodford was a member from Brooklyn not long after the war. He was one of the sensible chaps who didn't know it all at the beginning. For a month or so early in the session he had to spend a great deal of time in the departments, and so he looked around for somebody to keep him headed right on the rare occasions when he appeared in the House. There was a very shrewd-looking person who frequently occupied a seat near by, and Woodford was so struck by his appearance that he got in the habit of asking his advice whenever in doubt about a question. One day he strolled in during a roll call just before his name was reached. He didn't know what was up, but his unknown friend as usual told him how to vote.

When the result was announced he discovered to his chagrin that he had voted against most of the other members of his party. That worried him a little, but he kept mum, and sure enough a few days later it appeared that he had voted right and that the other fellows were wrong.

Then it occurred to him to find out the name of the far-seeing member who never took any part in debate. So he turned to a friend for information.

"What's his name?" repeated his friend in response to a question. "Why, my dear fellow, he is not a member at all. He is the clerk of the Postoffice Committee."

Woodford tells this tale himself, so it must be true.—Washington News.

He Was Successful.

On one occasion Calverly, the celebrated poet, was showing some ladies over Balliol College. He had shown them everything of interest in the college, and was hesitating where to take them next, when a friend dared him to show his friends the Master of Balliol.

An audacious thought struck Calverly, and turning round to the ladies, he asked: "Should you like to see the Master of Balliol himself?"

They said they would be delighted to see the Master, who, as everybody knows, of all Oxford "pots" is the most tremendous. Calverly picked up a handful of gravel and threw it against the Master's drawing-room window. Very soon the Master himself threw up the window, and looked out, red and angry at this unspeakable outrage.

"There, ladies," said the bold undergraduate, "is the Master of Balliol himself!"

That Joyful Feeling.

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old-time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

MERCURIAL

Mr. J. C. Jones, of Fulton, Arkansas, says: "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood poisoning. Leading physicians prescribed medicine after medicine, which I took without any relief. I also tried mercurial and potash remedies, with unsuccessful results, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of agony. After suffering four years I gave up all remedies and began using S. S. S. After taking several bottles I was entirely cured and able to resume work. S. S. S. is the greatest medicine for blood poisoning to-day on the market."

HOLLAND CITY NEWS

G. VAN SCHELVEN, Editor.

SATURDAY, OCT. 14, 1893.

Encore!

With that modesty which becomes a victor when confident of his prize, and with that satisfaction which, born out of an assurance of communal prowess, is fanned by a mutual one-ness, Holland proclaims the fact that the preliminaries for an additional manufacturing establishment have been perfected, and that by the opening of the coming year one more Furniture Factory will be added to the list of its industries.

Ground has already been broken.

The site selected is the premises known "before the fire" as the Grand Haven House, with a part of the water frontage of the Pfanstiehl dock and a tract of marsh west and north from there, the excavated dirt along River street coming into good play in filling in the rear part of the premises.

The projectors of the enterprise do not stand upon technicalities. The formal organization into a stock company will not take place until Saturday. Nevertheless the work goes bravely on. Plans and specifications for the buildings have all been drawn by architect Price, approved, and the contracts let.

The contractors are Van Ark & Stovenjans, and the agreement is to have the required buildings completed by Christmas, so that the plant can commence running by January 1, 1894.

The main building will have a frontage of 125 feet on River street by 80 feet deep, 2 stories and full basement, with boiler and engine house of 46x50, 1 story, and dry kiln 20x111. Also a warehouse of 50x100 feet, 2 stories and basement. All these buildings except the warehouse, will be of Waverly stone and Zeeland brick.

The consummation of the above is a matter of mutual congratulation. It means that the steady, healthy growth we have enjoyed of late is not to be checked, but that in our own moderate but irrepressible way Holland is bound to "get there."

The success of this undertaking is a tribute to the harmony and union of sentiment among the men who represent the push and enterprise of our fair city. And the happiest reflection of all is the opportunity it creates for an enlarged enrollment of the "pall brigade." Long may they prosper!

County Affairs.

The annual meeting of the Board of Supervisors opened on Monday, and much of the time this week was devoted to work in committee.

The court house building committee presented the following report:

To the honorable the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ottawa.

GENTLEMEN:—Your committee on county buildings, acting as a building committee, respectfully submit the following:

Upon the adjournment of the board: June 27th, your committee appointed architect W. K. Johnston as superintendent of the new court house, at a compensation of 1 1/2 per cent of the amount of the contract price.

Satisfactory progress is being made with the building, and the contractor expects to have it enclosed December 1st.

The corner stone was laid August 21st, with appropriate exercises, full mention of which was made in the county papers.

As the work progressed, your committee, in the interest of the building, and with the approval of the architect, made the following changes:

I. Moved the lavatory in basement from the east side of the hall to the west side.

II. Changed the grade line around the east half of the building, so as to make the entire grade around the building uniform with the west grade, as established. This involved more ashlar stone work on the east basement wall and additional stone steps outside, but it will also reduce the grading of the grounds hereafter.

III. Reduced the course of Bedford stone around the building at the grade line from 12 inches to 6 inches.

IV. Omitted the coal bin on the outside at the south-east corner.

V. Reduced the amount of indirect heating from 800 feet to not less than 200 feet, said 200 feet to be retained in the court room.

VI. All rooms to be furnished with radiators instead of coils, for heating.

VII. Trim the four corners of the outside wall, second story, with Waverly stone, same as on first story.

VIII. Change the wooden steps in both vestibules to iron steps, with iron frames, and glass in risers.

All of which changes, over and above reductions, involved an additional expenditure of $707.70.

The amount disbursed up to date by your committee is $24,497.30, as follows:

A. J. Ward, contractor..... $23,400.00
W. K. Johnston, architect..... 2,400.00
Advertising, printing, postage, etc..... 114.98
Expenses of committee..... 20.92

Moving woodshed, new sink, etc..... 35.92
Trees and walks..... 26.47
Removing part of present south vault..... 64.58
Corner at the incidentals..... 31.50
Hand filling in sub-basement..... 136.40
Water pipe, piping, etc..... 28.24
Sundry labor..... 12.00

Total..... $24,497.30

Payments to the contractor have been made by weekly, upon estimates made by the architect, less 10 per cent retained, as per contract.

Your committee have been most successful in negotiating, at par, a part of the court house loan, $15,000. Bonds to this amount were issued August 21st, A. D. 1893, maturing February 1st, 1895. This sum, with the amount deposited last spring by the city of Grand Haven, $15,000, and the taxes to come in February 1st next, $10,000.00—making a total of $40,000—will be ample to carry on the work during the lifetime of the present board.

Your committee has assumed the responsibility of placing an insurance on the building, builder's risk, to the amount of $4,500, running one year. Policies for the same have been deposited with the county treasurer.

In accordance with the instruction of the board your committee have arranged for a new heating plant for the jail, and entered into a contract for the same. The present apparatus was worn out and beyond repairing. Bids for the proposed plans were invited and received as follows:

D. Napier & Co., per B. A. Ward..... $600.00
H. W. Johnston, Grand Haven..... 485.00
James O'Connell, Grand Haven..... 507.40

The contract was awarded to H. W. Johnston, for the amount named in his bid, and calls for a new low-pressure steam heating plant; sectional cast iron boiler, capable of 800 square feet of direct radiation; radiators in hall, parlor, sitting room, dining room, office, jail and corridor on first floor, and in four bed rooms, boys' jail and women's jail on second floor; coupled with a guarantee of seventy degrees when the outside temperature is fifteen degrees below zero. Work to be completed October 1st, 1893. Payments to be made as follows: $400 when the job is accepted, and $85 January 1st, 1894. All of the material above named is expected to be utilized in the new jail.

Towards the finishing and furnishing of the court room next spring, the mantels, the vault fixtures, and the permanent desks or counters in the four leading offices, we recommend that the Board causes to be raised this year the sum of $5,000.

Your committee also submit herewith a communication from architect Johnston, recommending that all galvanized iron and tin work, not easy of access, on roof, be changed to copper, stating his reasons therefor. The original plan calls for copper, but your committee were forced to make this change, with others, in order to bring the contract price within the appropriation. We submit the proposed change to the favorable consideration of the Board.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The report was approved and adopted by the board except the recommendation of raising the amount needed toward furnishing the building. This was left to the next board to provide for. The amount involved in the change to copper is $794.

"The Wages of Sin is Death."

The country store of Berend W. Kooyers, one mile east and four miles north of the North Holland church, Olive township, on Tuesday morning, was the scene of a terrible tragedy, resulting in the fatal shooting of one Henry Dyk, a young man of 21 years, by Frank De Vries, also of about the same age.

Frank was in the employ of Mr. Kooyers. The latter had gone to Grand Rapids, on business. Of late several instances of petty thieving had been reported at and in the vicinity of the premises, and as a precautionary measure Frank slept in the store and had armed himself with a double barreled shotgun, loaded with shot. The store is a small building, about 10x24. In the rear, detached from the store, is the dwelling. Frank's couch was within six feet from the front door.

It was about three o'clock in the morning, when Frank awoke by an attack on the door. Silently he arose, went to the rear of the store, got his gun, and awaited further developments. It was not long before it dawned upon him that he would have to face an attempt at burglary. With a small auger the burglar bored 17 holes in the door, cutting out a piece of 7 inches square containing the lock; he then finished the job with his knife.

Frank waited until the burglar got inside the store, and although he had both triggers set he only fired one barrel. Subsequent examination showed that 30 or 40 shot had entered the burglar's right breast. He groaned, cried out oh! oh! stepped back and then left, Frank not knowing who it was he had shot.

Involuntarily, as it were, Frank shouted for help, ran to the house, about eight rods in the rear of the store, and roused the hired man. The two returned to the store and instituted a search, trying to find something that would lead towards identification. Owing to the darkness of the hour they failed to find any clue.

By this time Frank began to realize the probable result of his act, and harnessing the horse, drove to the house of C. D. Schilleman, a justice of the peace of Holland township, and informed him of what had transpired, saying he thought that he had shot some one. The justice at once drove to this city and reported the case to prosecuting attorney Visscher. Sheriff Keppel just happened to be in the city, and the two went out to the scene of the tragedy.

In the mean time the neighbors had continued a search of the premises in the immediate vicinity, and had come across the body. Toward six o'clock in the morning it was found in the yard, about 200 feet from the store, face downward. In order to get to where he was found the man had to crawl through a wire fence, fragments of his clothing on the wire marking the way he came. He was dead, and the body was at once identified as that of Henry Dyk, so well and so unfavorably known throughout that entire neighborhood. Indeed, so forcibly and deplorably was this fact brought out, that of all the neighbors that had gathered there none could be prevailed upon to go to the Dyk home, one half a mile north from the store, and inform the family. It was not until the return of the prosecuting attorney that this was done. He, with G. J. Diekema, who had been requested to appear on the grounds in the interest of Frank, had to assume this very unpleasant task.

The father was completely overcome and received the intelligence of the death of his son in a spirit the opposite from what had been expected, wailing especially about the fact that his boy was so suddenly hurled into eternity. He told them that Henry was a rebellious son and apparently intent upon a wrong career. He had offered him good wages if he would stay on the farm, but he refused, and for the past three weeks they had been totally ignorant of his whereabouts. The father admitted that under like circumstances, he too would have shot the burglar. The mother however was not so resigned, and complained bitterly about the sentiment entertained in the community towards them.

An inquest was held before Justice Schilleman, at which Frank gave a full history, unreserved, of the entire transaction. The jury brought in a verdict, stating substantially the manner in which Henry Dyk came to his death, as related above, neither directly or impliedly accusing or exonerating Frank of the shooting.

The brace and bit used by Henry in forcing an entrance were identified by Henry Cheesman, a farmer residing one mile north of the store, as belonging to the latter, he having missed them from his wagon shed that same morning. It was further developed that while the burglary was going on in the store a similar attempt had been made at the house in the rear of the store, by cutting out lights in the cellar window, whittling the sash with a knife.

Sheriff Keppel took Frank in his custody and brought him to Grand Haven. In the afternoon he was taken en before Justice Pagelson under a warrant alleging manslaughter. He waived a preliminary examination and was bound over to the circuit court for trial. Bail was fixed at $1,000 and duly furnished. There is every reason to think that the case will be brought on for trial at the November term.

Frank De Vries, so far as he is known here, is a young man of good character and irreproachable conduct. He is a son of Sijitse De Vries, who spent his youth in the early day of the colony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Flietstra, north of city, but who is now a resident of Grand Haven. Frank only recently hired out to storekeeper Kooyers, having hardly been there a week. During the summer he had been employed in the Phoenix planing mill of this city.

Henry Dyk is dead now, and we have endeavored to refrain from saying anything derogatory of him or his people beyond what was necessary for a proper understanding of the case.

It is presumable from the above along what lines the prosecution and the defense will lead. In our judgment trial by newspaper as well as by street jury, in a delicate case of this kind, should stand suspended while the regular process is pending.

The funeral of Henry Dyk took place Thursday forenoon, from the home of his parents, Rev. A. Stegeman of North Holland officiating. His remains were interred in the cemetery near Olive Centre.

There appears to have been no foundation for the sensational rumors that Frank De Vries stood in dread of being attacked by the Dyk boys, and hence preferred to remain in jail. Frank's recognizance was promptly filed with Justice Pagelson Wednesday.

The jury before whom the inquest was held was composed of Frank Kraal, J. D. Brouwer, John Kamper, Gerrit Groenewoud, F. Hathaway, and H. Garvelink.

The Grand Haven Tribune copies from the News the comparative statement of taxes between the two cities, Grand Haven and Holland, and then makes the following comment:

"The immensity of the News man's cheek in comparing the taxes raised in this city with those of his own little burgh we overlook, for we trust that ere this he has already learned that all the larger cities, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and the many others, necessarily require more money for municipal purposes than the smaller towns like Spring Lake, Allegan and Holland do. It is the incompleteness of the Holland statement to which we would call his attention. Grand Haven raises her street taxes by general tax while Holland gets hers by special assessments on the property owners of the street improved. Insert as an item in the Holland statement the total of the many special street taxes raised in your city this year, make allowance for the difference in the total valuation of the two cities, and then compare taxes, brother Van Schelven, but don't try to delude your readers and the tax-payers of Holland by a comparison in which you drop one of the main items of tax from the statement of your city."

Bluster is no argument. The statement as published by us is complete for the purposes of correct information. Holland city raises the money needed for its general street work by general tax, same as Grand Haven, and this is included in the tax levy of this year. In addition thereto we have annually one or more streets graded and graveled, and for this a special street tax is levied on the abutting property. The amount so levied this year is $3,257, which bears no relation whatever to the general rate of taxation, no more than special drain taxes do to the rate of taxation in townships. It might have had such a bearing, however, if Grand Haven were carrying on that kind of improvements this year, and paying for them out of its general fund. In such a case the stricture of the Tribune would have some foundation, but since Grand Haven is not doing anything of the kind, while Holland is, but paying for it specially, our statement for comparative purposes is correct and not delusive.

"Capt. Morton, of the Holland life saving station, spoke in very complimentary terms to me a few days ago about the behavior of our Str. City of Holland in the heavy northeast gale of Sept. 25th," said Mr. De Roo, sec'y of the Holland and Chicago Transp. Co. "He stated that himself and crew were watching our boat and the large Goodrich steamer bound for Grand Haven in the morning, and that our boat was making the better weather of the two. The Goodrich boat, in fact, turned tail to the wind at one time and headed for the south, but soon turned and resumed her course for Grand Haven. The captain stated that he hardly expected that our boat would venture to make the port here, but that when well to the north she squared off and came in as gracefully and easily as if it were a summer zephyr blowing instead of a 50 mile gale. It is a fact," added Mr. De Roo, "that our boat has been out in all the heaviest gales of the seasons and has proven herself to be a thoroughly good sea boat, and Capt. Grant has proven to be a skillful mariner."

ACCIDENTAL DEATHS.

Caused by Carelessness.

The majority of people die sooner than they should. Evidence of this fact is growing daily. Waring says: "Disease is not a consequence of life; it is due to unnatural conditions of living—neglect, abuse, want." Dr. Stephen Smith, on the same subject, "Man is born to health and long life; disease is unnatural, death, except from old age, is accidental, and both are preventable by human agencies." This is almost invariably true of death resulting from heart disease. Careless over-exertion, intemperate use of tea, coffee, tobacco, alcoholic or other stimulants are generally the causes of this difficulty, and indifference to its progress results in sudden death, or long sickness ending in death. By the newspapers it can be seen that many prominent and hundreds of persons in private life die from heart disease every day.

If you have any of the following symptoms: shortness of breath, palpitation, irregular pulse, fainting and smothering spells, pain in shoulder, side, or arm, swollen ankles, etc., begin treatment immediately for heart disease. If you delay, the consequences may be serious.

For over 20 years Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent specialist, has made a profound study of heart disease, its causes and cure, and many of the leading discoveries in that direction are due to him. His New Heart Cure is absolutely the only reliable remedy for the cure of heart disease, as is proved by thousands of testimonials from grateful persons who have used it.

James A. Pain, editor of the Corry, Pa., Leader, states: "After an apparent recovery from three months of la grippe, I fell on the street unconscious from heart disease. In one month from that time I was unable to walk across my room, and my pulse beat from 85 to 116 times a minute. I then used Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and at once became stronger. After using six bottles I was able to work as usual and walk a mile every day, my pulse ranging from 68 to 80. Dr. Miles' remedy is not only a preventive but a cure." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs. Dr. Miles' Pills, 25 cents. Free book at druggists, or by mail.

APPEALS FOR AID.

LOUISIANA SUFFERERS IN DESPERATE STRAITS.

Glorious Culmination of Chicago's Celebration—The Exposition Pays Every Obligation—Sensational Affray at Grand Island, Neb.

New Orleans Board of Trade Asks Help. The following was telegraphed from New Orleans to the commercial exchanges at Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Kansas City, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Omaha, and other places:

OFFICE BOARD OF TRADE (Limited), NEW ORLEANS, LA. A terrible disaster has destroyed a majority of the inhabitants of the islands and marshes adjacent to this city and the survivors are left penniless. Their stock, houses, boats, and all means of livelihood are gone, and they are in dire distress. The people of Louisiana will bury the dead and feed the starving, but appeal to a generous public to assist in contributions which will enable thousands of deserving people to again follow their vocations and support their families. Subscriptions of every character will be thankfully received and be distributed by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade acting jointly with committees of other commercial bodies.

COST OF CHINESE DEPORTATION.

Secretary Carlisle Thinks More Than $10,000,000 Will Be Needed.

The Secretary of the Treasury has sent to the Senate a revised estimate of the cost of the deportation of the Chinese now in the United States, in accordance with the provisions of the Geary law. The statement is supplementary to that of Sept. 12, and increases the estimate of the total appropriation necessary from $6,000,000 to $10,335,000. A portion of this increase, $1,335,000, is due to the fact that the steamship companies have increased their rates for the transportation of Chinese from San Francisco to Hong Kong from $35 to $51. The remaining portion of the increase is due to the fact that the first estimate did not include the expenditure in the courts which the enforcement of the act renders necessary. The First Auditor of the Treasury gives the opinion that $35 per capita will prove to be a low estimate of the cost under this head in California, while the amount will be greatly increased in other States.

NO IMPROVEMENT SEEN.

Dun's Weekly Trade Review Finds No Rift in the Clouds Yet.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade sums up the situation as follows:

It is difficult to detect any signs of improvement. While there have been some additions to the number of manufacturing establishments and the number of hands at work during the last week, it is becoming painfully clear that the orders obtained or not sufficient to keep employed at full time even the limited force at present engaged. There is on the whole less confidence regarding the future than there was a week ago. There is not such encouragement as might be desired in the industrial reports for the week. Failures continue to decrease in number and importance, though not as much as has been hoped. The movement of wheat has been fairly large and the price has declined about 2 cents, while corn has also yielded about 1 cent. Cotton is a quarter higher without distinct reasons in crop prospects, and pork products are also somewhat higher, pork being 75 cents per barrel. It is possible that the surplus currency in circulation has its natural effect in stimulating speculative activity. Happily the changes thus far have not diminished the exports of products, which continue fairly large.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN.

Chicago Sees the Greatest Crowd Ever Assembled On Earth.

The culmination of all Chicago's plans for her celebration, Monday, of the twenty-second anniversary of her great fire, was certainly grand enough to satisfy all who had hoped to surpass any kindred achievement. The multitude which visited Jackson Park that day numbered 713,646. In addition hundreds of thousands were in the city, unable to reach the park, as every avenue of travel was congested to the last degree. The weather was perfect, and during the whole day the program was one long round of celebration. At night the gorgeousness of the scene was dazzling, surprising even to those familiar with such displays. The number of fatalities, from cable cars, elevated trains, and the like, was unexpectedly small, but four people being killed. About twenty were injured, some fatally.

DESPERATE FIGHT WITH THIEVES.

One Burglar Killed and an Officer Wounded in Grand Island, Neb.

At Grand Island, Neb., burglars were found in Hayden's store the other night by Merchant Police Service, who was passing. Officer Smith came by as he was making for the alley, in the rear, and both officers and three burglars had a hand-to-hand battle in which about twenty shots were exchanged, one burglar instantly killed, and Officer Smith wounded in the thigh. The night was exceedingly dark and the other two made safe their escape by getting among the crowd. The burglar killed was identified as an all-round tough named Charles Fisher, from Omaha. His person was loaded with jewelry.

Every Debt Is Paid.

The financial skies of the Columbian Exposition are as bright and clear as a cloudless sky. There is now not a cloud on the horizon. The last dollar of a threatening debt that hung like a pall over the Fair was swept away Monday. Treasurer Reeburger signed the biggest check that morning that has been drawn against the Exposition's funds since the books were opened, more than three years ago. It was one of the biggest checks ever written in Chicago—$1,555,310.75—representing the last payment on the $4,500,000 issue of bonds, including the interest that had been piling up since last February.

Rio in a State of Quiet at Last.

A late dispatch from Rio de Janeiro says that at the time the massacre was sent the bombardment had not been resumed. It was also stated that the city was in a state of tranquillity and that the stories circulated as to excess committed by the Brazilian troops were without foundation.

Beats the Ocean Record.

The new Cunarder, the Lucania, dropped anchor at quarantine the other night, beating the previous record held by the City of Paris by fifty-five minutes.

LARGE CIRCULATION OF MONEY.

Monthly Statement Shows the Amount of $35.29 Per Capita.

The largest actual circulation of money in the United States within the present generation was recorded in the monthly statement of circulation for September. The aggregate circulation is given at $1,701,939,918, which amounts to $35.29 per capita for an estimated population of 67,306,000. This is an increase of $21,377,247 during the month of September and of $105,869,935 since Oct. 1, 1892. The largest increase is due to the imports of gold to meet the monetary stringency in New York, which amounted during September to $14,829,741. The next largest item of increase is $5,052,617, which is in the national bank notes taken out under the same pressure of monetary stringency. The issue of standard silver dollars in actual circulation is $58,832,668, the silver certificates in circulation are $24,955,134 and the Sherman notes are $148,824,199, making the silver money of the country in actual circulation about $533,000,000, in addition to $64,100,205 in subsidiary silver and a considerable quantity of uncovered silver and its paper representatives in the Treasury cash. The circulation by the Treasury figures is now 85 cents more per capita than on July 1, 1892; about $2.50 more than on July 1, 1890, and nearly $6 more than on July 1, 1880. It is nearly 50 per cent in excess of the per capita circulation immediately after the resumption of specie payments, on July 1, 1879, when the amount was $16.75.

BESIEGED BY MOORS.

Spanish Garrison at Melilla Attacked by the Natives.

The Spanish garrison at Melilla, on the northern coast of Morocco, is besieged by thousands of natives and the situation is critical. The Spanish authorities recently decided to add to the strength of their fortifications at Melilla, the state of the country, and the acts of the natives, in their opinion, warranting such a course. The work of constructing additional fortifications was begun and pushed forward as rapidly as possible. This incensed the Moors, and a force of more than 6,000 natives made an attack upon the Spanish garrison, that numbered all told not more than four hundred souls. During the battle eighteen of the Spaniards were killed and thirty-five wounded, including three officers, whose injuries are serious. The Spanish artillery did great execution. The guns at one time directed their fire upon a mosque and almost completely destroyed it. Other buildings in the range of their fire were also destroyed.

REVENUE LEGISLATION HANGING.

House Ways and Means Committee Has Taken No Decisive Action.

It was reported in Washington that the majority of the Committee on Ways and Means had decided to formally report bills doubling the internal revenue tax on beer and to impose a tax on legacies, etc. Chairman Wilson is authority for the statement that any report impugning the majority of the committee decisive action upon these matters or any others within the next two weeks have no foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson, in answer to a question as to whether or not the tariff bill would be reported to the House by Nov. 1, recalled the fact that in the Fifty-first Congress the Committee on Ways and Means, which was appointed early in December, did not reach the McKinley bill until the middle of April, a period of four months.

Pest in the Grain Exhibit.

Beware of samples of grain given away at the Agricultural Building on the World's Fair grounds! This is a somewhat sensational warning that has been sounded by the State Executive Commissioners. Evidence has come to hand that the weevil pest has spread until the entire grain exhibit in the Agricultural Building is more or less affected. The weevil is an importation from the old country and has been one of the greatest pests known to agriculture in southwest Russia and, lately, in India. The weevil lays an egg, which develops into a worm that burrows in the kernel of the grain. The pest multiplies and spreads with frightful rapidity. It is presumed to have been brought into Agriculture Building in a single consignment from a foreign country, since which time it has attacked the grain exhibits in all parts of the building. The alarming features of the case were freely discussed at a meeting of the State Executive Commissioners held in California Building.

Large Catch of Seals.

The Russian steamer Kotick has arrived in San Francisco with this season's catch of the Russian Eskimo Company, owners of the Copper Island rookery privileges. It is the most valuable cargo from the north that has ever entered that port. On the manifest are 33,830 seal skins, valued at $15 per skin; 134 seal otter skins at $100 each; 480 bear skins and 800 sable, making a total valuation of over five hundred thousand dollars.

Masonic Delegates Meet.

The fifty-fourth annual session of the Illinois Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons met in Central Music Hall, Chicago. The 713 lodges in the State were represented by 1,339 delegates. The annual address of Grand Master M. C. Crawford was full of interest for its delegates.

CAPTURED HIS CASH.

AN ILLINOIS FARMER THE DUPE OF A SHARPER.

The Rascal Had a Scheme to Win $5,000—Bimetallist Convention Adjourns—Big Rate War Imminent—Hawallan Message Ready—Harrison Honored.

A Farmer Loses His All. According to a Bushnell, Ill., dispatch John Foster, a farmer living near Adam, is $6,000 wiser than he was. Early the other afternoon he was approached by a stranger who told him that he had a plan to win $5,000 by a game that he would show him. It was the old shell game. The stranger then informed Mr. Foster that he knew of another man in town who had $5,000, and if Foster would furnish $2,000 they would win it and divide. Foster agreed, furnished the money, the game was played, the $5,000 won, and the whole put in a box. Foster was told to take it home, and in the morning his friend would call and divide. This he did, and his wife, much against Foster's wishes, broke open the box with an ax, and found an ear of corn. The sharpers had left in the meantime with the $2,000.

BIMETALLIST CONVENTION CLOSED.

Delegates Decide Not to Remove the Capitol from Washington.

The delegates to the Pan-American Bimetallist convention in St. Louis were called to order Thursday morning by Secretary Newell. Gen. A. O. Fisk was chosen presiding officer. Gov. Tillman, from the Committee on Resolutions, to which was referred the resolution calling for the removal of the United States Capitol from Washington, recommended the rejection of the resolution. J. B. Follett, of St. Louis, moved the adoption of the majority report of the committee on resolutions. Delegate Waterbury, of Kansas, moved as an amendment to add the minority report of H. Taylor, of Minnesota, for the colnage of land values equally with bullion value. The speaking of the day was started by State Senator Cochran, of St. Joseph, Mo., and was directed against the administration and the bankers. In response to loud cries Governor Tillman took the floor to explain why the committee on resolutions had not taken up the land currency scheme. He said he did not believe the convention would do itself any good by advocating land currency or any sub-treasury scheme. Governor Walte of Colorado then spoke against the propriety of introducing a land currency resolution in a bimetallist convention. Following Governor Walte a number of short addresses were made. The minority resolutions were withdrawn and the majority adopted.

FOUNDATION FOR A RATE WAR.

The Big Four Makes a New Tariff on East-Bound Business.

The Big Four has made a rate on grain and flour from East St. Louis to Liverpool in connection with its new steamship line from Newport News of 25 cents per 100 pounds. The regular rate from East St. Louis to the seaboard is 25 cents, so that the Newport News steamers are destined to play an important part in east-bound rates in the future. Of course, no one believes that the ocean freight proportion of the through rate is 8-10 of a cent per 100, but as the way bills, books and all documents pertaining to the shipment will show this to be the case the Interstate Commerce Commissioners will have serious difficulty in showing that the long and short haul clause of the law has been violated. A rate war on east-bound business is sure to follow, as the Big Four, and with it the Baltimore & Ohio, has determined on this rate.

HAWAIIAN MESSAGE READY.

President Favors Referring Protectorate Questions to a Vote.

An executive message on Hawaiian affairs has been prepared for some weeks, ready for transmission to the Senate whenever action on the silver question permits the consideration of other business. The message has been carefully guarded by the State department, the only information vouchsafed being that it embodies the recommendations of Minister Blount. The Baltimore Sun states that it is able to disclose for the first time the nature of Mr. Blount's recommendation, which is that the question of establishing a protectorate over the islands by the United States should be submitted to a plebiscite, in which the natives and the foreign-born residents should have equal rights of voting.

Fifteen Acres of Ruin.

Late Oriental papers give further details of the great fire at Port Louis, Island of Mauritius. The value of property destroyed is roughly estimated at 8,000,000 rupees. It broke out in a house by the setting of an oil lamp, and favored by wind and by the circumstance that all the houses were of wood, the flames spread rapidly and were not extinguished until fifteen acres of Port Louis with its buildings were laid in ruins.

Harrison Is Honored.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ohio Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion in Cincinnati, its newly elected Commander, ex-President Benjamin Harrison, was installed. Though suffering somewhat from a cold he made a brief speech of thanks, taking occasion also to emphasize the duty of such associations as this to teach patriotism to the rising generation.

Decapitated by a Wire Fence.

Gottfried Gruetzke, a wealthy German farmer, living near Goffs, Kan., had his head completely severed from his body in a runaway accident. He was driving a spirited team. They ran into a ditch, throwing Mr. Gruetzke completely over the team onto a barb-wire fence. He struck on his neck with such force that the wire severed it completely.

Carlisle Explains.

Secretary Carlisle has sent a letter to Congress explaining that his failure during July and August to purchase the full amount of silver prescribed by law was due to his inability to secure it at what he considered the market price.

Electric Cars Burned.

Fire at Canton, Ohio, destroyed the immense car barns of the Canton-Massillon Electric Railway Company. Seventeen motor-cars were burned, besides trolley-cars and other valuable property. The loss will be over $100,000; insurance about half.

Dead List Grows.

News continues to come in regarding the devastation of the recent storm in the South, and each report adds to the list of dead and swells the aggregate of the property loss. The number of dead now reported exceeds 2,000.

TO PROTECT RAILWAY EMPLOYEES.

Proposed National Commission to Regulate Hours, Work and Pay.

The question of protecting railroad employees is brought before Congress in a new shape by the bill introduced by Representative John Davis, of Kansas, "to establish a commission to compel the use of safety appliances on all railroads engaged in interstate commerce, and protect railroad employees from overwork and underpay." The bill establishes an eight-hour day and makes it the duty of the commission to see that incompetent men are not employed in responsible positions, and that men shall not be rendered incompetent by reason of overwork or loss of sleep. In the arrangement of labor and the payment of employees the rights of the men and the safety of persons shall be deemed paramount, and the profits of railroad companies but secondary.

GOT NEAR THE NORTH POLE.

Whaler Newport Reaches Highest Latitude Ever Touched.

The steamer Joanie, tender of the arctic whaling fleet, which arrived at San Francisco from Herschel Island, brings news that Capt. Porter of the steam whaler Newport reached 84 degrees north latitude, the most northerly point ever reached by man. The Newport wintered at Herschel Island, and this summer, aided by an open sea particularly free from ice, worked her way north, while in pursuit of whales, to 84 degrees, within 6 degrees of the north pole. The ship was then stopped, but it is the opinion that had the Newport been supplied with dogs and sledges the north pole could easily have been reached by traveling over the ice.

Figures from the Land Office.

Commissioner Lamoreaux, of the general land office, reports that during the fiscal year ended June 30 the aggregate of public lands disposed of was 11,891,148 acres, of which 1,404,958 acres were sold for cash; 10,396,727 acres were miscellaneous entries and 69,457 were Indian lands. The cash receipts of the office during the year aggregated $4,479,734. Agricultural patents were issued during the year to the number of 43,684, of which 16,517 were cash, 21,643 homesteads and 5,510 timber cultures.

Bismarck Seriously Sick.

A telegram from Breslau says a report has reached there from Kissingen that Prince Bismarck's condition is such that it is doubtful if he will leave Kissingen alive. This report lacks confirmation. The Neue Freie Presse of Vienna prints a dispatch which in a measure confirms the report printed in Breslau. The dispatch says that Prince Bismarck has a broken-down appearance and has become a decrepit old man.

Must Register the Palmetto.

While a final settlement of the celebrated palmetto trade mark case has not been reached, a decision favorable to Gov. Tillman was given in the District Supreme Court at Washington. The decision was in effect that the Commissioner must register the Palmetto.

Missionaries Slain in Alaska.

There has been a recent and sudden uprising among the natives of Alaska, who have looked upon missionaries as intruders. Many whites have been killed, among them being several missionaries who were sent out by the American Board.

Many Houses in Danger.

There has been an alarming subsidence of land under the village of Salswood, near Sandgate, Kent, where the subsidence of 1892 took place. The ground has fallen several feet and many houses have already been damaged by the landfall.

Drowning at Coos Bay, Ore.

A party of seven were out sailing near the entrance to Coos Bay, Ore., when their boat was capsized by a gust of wind, and four of the party were drowned. Two ladies and a child clung to the boat till rescued.

Many Lives Lost.

Out of a population of 300 at Bayou Cook, La., but thirty escaped the terrible Southern storm. Many lives are also reported lost by the storm at Mobile, Ala., and the damage will reach millions.

A Thousand Marriages Annulled.

LIKE A PAINTED SHIP.

SENATORIAL TORPOR THAT IS IDYLIC.

Expense of Maintaining the Senatorial Aggregation—What It Costs to Feed the Senate Animals and Clean Out the Senate Cages—Congressional Proceedings.

May Now Do Something. Washington correspondence:

THE United States Senate has done nothing up to the time this letter is written, and that august body has been doing this nothing in its customary grave and owlish fashion. The Senate is a blight, a mildew, a moth to feed on the warp and woof of men's hopes; a quicksand to engulf a nation's destiny, a bacillus, a paralysis. It toils not, neither does it spin.

As idle as a painted ship Upon a painted ocean.

What a toothless humbug the Senate is. One has to chop up its meat for it. Do you know how much money the Senate has wasted while "deliberating" and chasing the stock board up and down the stairs of value? Do you know how much it costs to feed the Senate animals and clean out the Senate cages? There should be eighty-eight Senators. There are only eighty-five—three shy.

Senators Come High.

Well, it costs Uncle Sam $5,000 a year to have a Senator. In most instances he isn't worth it, but he gets it just the same. That's $440,000. Now for doorkeepers, flunkies, pages, roustabouts, deckhands, and all that long list of tax-eaters that make up the train of greatness, Uncle Sam pays just about $440,000 more—about $880,000 a year. It falls out, then, that the last two months of idleness have cost the country almost $150,000. Pretty steep price to pay for such a case of typhus fever as the Senate. But it seems to be really on the brink of something. The Senate as a disaster will take a new form.

For ten days Senators and all sorts of philosophers in statecraft have besieged Cleveland. They have been telling him that the White House has been cleaned out, that on the proposition of unconditional repeal it was a whipped and "busted" community. They told Cleveland that he had better realize this, doff his hat to fate, limber up his artillery, order his bugles to blow the retreat, and leave the field. They pointed out that Washington retreated through seven revolutionary years and now owned a white marble monument 550 sky-piercing feet high.

Senate and House.

The Vice President on Tuesday laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury giving a detailed statement of the exports of silver for the months of July and August. Mr. Dubois, of Idaho, introduced a bill enabling the States of California, Colorado, Montana, and Idaho to support State schools of mines. Mr. Morzan, of Alabama, offered an amendment to the Wilson repeal bill, declaring the act of Jan. 18, 1837, to be in force. Mr. Dolph, of Oregon, then took the floor and continued his speech, begun Monday, in support of the silver repeal bill.

In the Senate Wednesday the first open suggestion of a compromise on the repeal bill attracted the closest attention on both sides of the chamber. Senator Butler of South Carolina in an impassioned speech against the passage of the bill made compromise the salient feature. "Compromise, compromise

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Grand Haven.

A stranger giving his name as Bennett, hired a horse at one of our livery stables Sunday and failed to return. Sheriff Keppel was notified and forthwith took the train for Holland. He tracked him from there to near Douglas, where he had sold the horse, but failed to obtain the money. The party buying the animal desired to obtain some identity or proof of ownership. This scared Bennett and he skipped. The sheriff returned to Grand Haven with the horse and buggy. The thief is still at large.

An Iowa man has been purchasing farm property in Grand Haven township.

Capt. F. J. Smallman, the well known and popular commander of the 8th Mich. Inf., died at his home in this city at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been suffering for years from diabetes, but with a courage and determination typical of the man he maintained his post of duty until Sunday last. He was in Milwaukee with his boat, when the disease suddenly took a serious turn. On Monday forenoon he was not expected to survive and the R. R. Co. directed the steamer to proceed at once to Grand Haven and convey the patient to his home. The boat arrived at the dock here at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the Captain was borne on a cot to his home in The Norris. He rallied sufficient to recognize those around him, and lingered in a semi-unconscious condition until the next morning. The funeral took place on Thursday and was largely attended. Among the many press notices a part of his death we select the following: Capt. Smallman was not only one of the best known mariners on the lakes, but at one time he was a celebrity of national importance. It was he, who, during the hot fighting along the Carolina coast in the early years of the rebellion, landed the dare-devil Lieut. Cushing when he blew up the iron ram Albemarle—an achievement that won him the thanks of Congress and the rank of lieutenant-commander at the age of 21. In those days young Smallman was known as the youngest captain in the volunteer navy. He also commanded one of the transports in the expedition to Port Royal, S. C. Among the troops on board was the 8th Mich. Infy.

Jerry W. Boynton, the well known railroad projector, says the survey of a new road has just been completed from Battle Creek to Grand Rapids via Hastings. This road will connect at Grand Rapids with the Grd Rapids & Grand Haven road, via the Grand river valley. Mr. Boynton has an agent now in London negotiating for the sale of the bonds, and says he can assure the people that the cars will be running on the road in less than a year.

A meeting will be called shortly in Peach Plains to formulate plans for the building of a good gravel road from the city limits to Robinson.

Geo. W. McBride has been honored with the election of president of the association representing his old regiment, the 15th Mich. Infy.

The windmill which has supplied water to the locomotive tank at the C. & W. M. depot for a number of years is being torn down. City water will fill the tank hereafter.

Mrs. Affien Bos of this city had the narrowest kind of an escape from instant death. She was walking along the C. & W. M. track and being very deaf, did not hear the fast passenger train coming behind her. The engineer sounded the whistle, but the woman did not get out of the train's path. Suspecting that she was deaf he made every effort to stop the train. He did it, but it was only by the narrow margin of a foot or two. In another second the engine would have struck the woman.—Tribune.

John Nordbuis, a young man of this city has recently been appointed stenographer and private secretary to Secretary of Agriculture Morton.

Allegan County.

The propeller Douglas, will be withdrawn from the Chicago route the last of next week and the propeller Saugatuck substituted in her place.

The steamer Bon Voyage, after a prosperous season, has gone into winter quarters at Saugatuck.

This week will about wind up the shipment of peaches.—Record.

Last Saturday morning, at New Richmond, Floyd Harris, aged 13 years, accidentally shot and killed his brother Furtal who was 16 years old.

The boys had borrowed a gun to go duck hunting, but it was so wet that they did not go. Before dressing in the morning Floyd got the gun and was handling it, when it went off, the load striking his brother in the arm and side. A terrible wound was made through which the bowels protruded. The boy died a few hours later.—Herald.

Judge Padgham, on the opening day of circuit court, decided the suit between W. J. Pollard and the Harrison Electric Light Co., dissolving the injunction which had been granted the former, restraining the company from erecting poles and stringing wires in the street in front of his property. The court said the question was a new one, in the shape in which it was presented, never having been decided by any supreme court of this country. He held that the taking of land for use as a highway means not only its use for the needs of the time at which it was taken, but for all uses which may reasonably be required of it. That is, use of the highway as a place for the hanging of wires for electric lighting is of the same nature, and therefore has the same legal status, as it has for water and gas pipes. If needless injury has been inflicted upon Mr. Pollard by the manner in which the company has erected or shall erect its poles and wires, the court intimates that he has a remedy in a suit for damages.—Gazette.
